

LEND

VanEck Global Listed Private Credit (AUD Hedged) ETF

Fund Description

VanEck Global Listed Private Credit (AUD Hedged) ETF gives investors exposure to a portfolio of 25 of the largest listed companies involved in private credit. LEND aims to provide investment returns before fees and other costs which track the performance of the Index with returns hedged into Australian dollars.

The index measures the performance of the largest and most liquid listed private credit companies.

An investment in the ETF carries risks associated with: listed private credit, interest rates, credit/default, currency hedging, ASX trading time differences, financial markets generally, individual company management, industry sectors, country or sector concentration, political, regulatory and tax risks, fund operations, liquidity and tracking an index. See the PDS for more details on risk.

The tables above show past performance of the ETF from 31 January 2024. Index performance shown prior to 2 January 2024 is simulated based on the current Index methodology. Results are calculated to the last business day of the month and assume immediate reinvestment of dividends. ETF results are net of management fees and costs incurred in the fund, but before brokerage fees or bid/ask spreads incurred when investors buy/sell on the ASX. Returns for periods longer than one year are annualised. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of current or future performance which may be lower or higher.
